Real Estate Tax Relief for the Elderly and Disabled

Exemption authorized

Real estate tax exemption is provided for qualified property owners who are not less than sixty-five (65) years of age or who are permanently and totally disabled and who are eligible according to the terms of this article and Section 58.1-3210, of the Code of Virginia. Persons qualifying for exemption are deemed to be bearing an extraordinary real estate tax burden in relation to their income and financial worth.

Requirements for exemption

Exemption shall be granted to persons subject to the following provisions:

1. The title of the property for which exemption is claimed is held, or partially held, on January 1st of the taxable year, by the person or persons claiming exemption.
2. The head of the household occupying the dwelling and owning title, or partial title hereto, is sixty-five or older or became permanently disabled on June 30th of the year immediately preceding the taxable year.
3. The total combined income of the owner(s) during the year immediately preceding the taxable year shall be determined by the Commissioner of the Revenue in an amount not to exceed $40,000. Additionally, $7,500 of income for an owner who is permanently disabled shall be excluded from the total combined income calculation. "Total combined income" shall include all income from all sources of the owner(s) and all others living in the dwelling for which exemption is claimed, except that the first $6,500 of income of each person other than spouse of the owner, or owners, living in the dwelling shall not be included in such total.
4. The net combined financial worth of the owner(s) and all others residing in the dwelling as of December 31st of the year immediately preceding the taxable year shall be determined by the Commissioner of the Revenue in an amount not to exceed $100,000. "Net financial worth" shall include the value of all assets including equitable interest, of the owner(s) and all others living in the dwelling for which exemption is claimed, but shall not include the fair market value of the dwelling and the land upon which it is situated, not exceeding ten acres, for which exemption is claimed.

Claiming of exemption

1. Annually, and not later than May 1st of the taxable year, the person or persons claiming an exemption must file a Real Estate Tax Relief Application with the Commissioner of the Revenue.
2. The Application shall set forth, in a manner prescribed by the Commissioner of the Revenue, (1) the names all persons occupying the dwelling for which exemption is claimed, (2) their gross combined income, (3) and their total combined net worth.
3. If such person is under 65 years of age such application shall have attached thereto a certification by the Social Security Administration, the Veteran's Administration, or the Railroad Retirement Board, or if such person is not eligible for certification by any of these agencies, a sworn affidavit by a medical doctor licensed to practice medicine in the Commonwealth, to the effect that such person is permanently and totally disabled. Such doctor shall base the affidavit upon a physical examination of such person. The affidavit may be based upon medical information contained in the records of the Civil Service Commission, which is relevant to the standards of determining permanent, and total disability. Such affidavit or verification shall be filed after the first of January of each year but before the first day of May. The Commissioner of the Revenue may grant late filing for first time applicants or in hardship cases.

Amount of exemption

The person qualifying for and claiming exemption shall be relieved on the qualifying dwelling and land in an amount as specified below:

Income ($)	Net Worth ($)
	0-25,000	25,001-50,000	50,001-75,000	75,001-100,000
0-18,000	100%	90%	80%	75%
18,001-29,000	90%	80%	70%	70%
29,001-40,000	70%	60%	50%	50%

Except that the relief shall not exceed $1,000.00 on any qualified dwelling and land. Effective January 1st, 2008.

Penalty for violation of article

Any person or persons falsely claiming a grant under this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each offense.

Revised by the Board of Supervisors December 7, 2009.
